

New York-based TV News Journalist Presenter/Anchor (English-French speaking)
& Associate Business Partner

Ref: NY-3ec-TV

3ec-TV, which is being set up in France (will be based in Brittany, France), is an independent international generalist bilingual (English-French) TV channel with a humanistic vision and ecology oriented, collaborating with recognized institutions and NGOs and supported by personalities around the world, visible on our information pages: <https://3ec-tv.com>

3ec-TV is an innovative media with a potentially large audience (launch in 2026 on 5 continents via internet, cable, satellite).

Position

This position is for an American journalist based in New York (with some knowledge of French).

Post with a permanent full-time contract, profit-sharing scheme and company shares. This job is based on a daily basis assignment and a monthly remuneration.

This position requires autonomy, adaptability and confidentiality. You are well organized and work as a reliable member of a motivated team under the supervision of the TV News Director. (The main editorial team of 3ec-TV is based in France). You adhere to the culture of the company.

There will be opportunities to collaborate with interns from various universities in due course.

Main duties

- Collaborate on a daily basis with the News Director (based in France) to choose stories to broadcast, considering source reliability and assessing the level of significance and relevance to the channel's editorial line
- Prepare, present and record (no live broadcast) TV news bulletins daily in English (use of French subtitles and a translation software) on affairs related to the American continent
- Carry out some interviews
- Deal with external communication on the American continent
- Participate in the ongoing sizzle/teaser for the channel launch

Profile/ Skills sought

- Belief and comfort in constructive journalism (solution-focused news)
- Interest in ecological and societal issues (experience reporting on those subjects is a plus)
- Excellent communication skills and a good command of English and minimum intermediate French (for writing subtitles)
- Use of computer tools (office software and Internet) and good knowledge of production and broadcast techniques
- On-air TV experience is a plus
- Good knowledge of social networks

Qualifications

Bachelor's degree in TV broadcast journalism/media or equivalent professional experience. Some demonstrable experience required, but motivation and enthusiasm are most important.

Contact

If you are a broadcast journalist (already based in New York) entrepreneurial-minded and motivated by the ethical values and challenges of an innovative TV channel, join the friendly team of 3ec-TV and its internationally renowned collaborators and advisors visible on our information pages: <https://3ec-tv.com>

Please send your resume (CV), portfolio/show reel and cover letter indicating expected remuneration (indicate Ref: NY-3ec-TV) to: contact [at] 3ec-tv.com

Follow us on LinkedIn